YORKSHIRE DALES

QUICK FACTS

Location

On arriving at Natural Retreats Yorkshire Dales the attraction of this secluded site is immediately apparent. Set apart from the town of Richmond, which is only a beautiful stroll away along the coast to coast path, the rolling vistas form a picture perfect view of what the Yorkshire Dales represents in the minds of most people. Rich green hills, dense ancient forests cut through by the rivers and streams that so characterise this landscape.

The perfect location for those wishing to enjoy a full holiday, or short weekend break in luxurious accommodation.

Activities

Natural Retreats - Yorkshire Dales is located just a mile from the centre of Richmond, a town rich in history and culture which guests can easily explore on foot, accessed by the popular walking & biking 'Coast to Coast' route. This famous path runs along the southern boundary of the land and by following this in the opposite direction, one will very quickly find oneself in the National Park itself.

Mountain bikes can be hired and delivered to the retreat and there are many riding stables in the area. Fantastic fishing can be found on the Swale as close as Richmond itself and the area offers endless miles of exhilarating walking across the Dales.
